TEEN READ MONTH

Record the number of pages of any book, magazine or newspaper you read for pleasure each day for the Teen Read Month contest. Please note, one newspaper article equals one page read. Extra logs can be downloaded from www.odl.state.ok.us/teen-read. Reading logs must be returned to your librarian by November 4, 2011, to count toward the contest.

PRIZES

- * The library whose teen readers log the most pages read in October will receive $250 worth of books and a special program presented by Kevin Stark, curator of Oklahoma's own Toy and Action Figure Museum. (Books will be selected by the school library.)
- * The top reader from participating libraries will receive a Nook Color™ eReader and a $100 gift certificate.
- * All participating teens who turn in reading logs will be entered in a drawing to win a free set of books.
- * Winners will be announced at nie.newsok.com.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

All federal, state and local regulations apply. No purchase necessary. There are no prize or cash substitutions. Prizes are non-transferable. By participating in this promotion, entrants agree to be bound by the official rules and the decisions of the judges/contest officials. All decisions made by contest officials shall be deemed final. Employees of contest sponsors and their immediate families are ineligible to participate. Individual prizes may only be earned through participation with a school or a public library but not through both. This contest is void where prohibited by law. Acceptance of prizes constitutes permission to use the winner name(s), video(s), photograph(s) and likeness(es) for purposes of advertising and promotion on behalf of contest sponsors without compensation. All contest submissions become the property of the Oklahoma Department of Libraries and ODL retains the right to reuse them at their discretion and without compensation.

SUBMIT THIS READING LOG TO YOUR LOCAL LIBRARIAN BY FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2011.
